

OFFICE OF THE STATE CHIEF INFORMATION OFFICER

J. Clark Kelso
Chief Information Officer

March 16, 2006

To: Agency Information Officers
Chief Information Officers
Data Center Directors

The Portal Steering Committee and I request your participation in the Project Nomination Process to identify at least five projects that will serve as statewide models or case studies for e-Services investment for the next couple of years, as outlined in the 2005 California IT Strategic Plan, Goal 1, Objective 1, Action 2:

“By March 2006, the State CIO will identify at least five projects that will serve as models or case studies for e-Services investment including:

- a. A project focused on the delivery of services to citizens (such as licensing, or call center services, or recreation and visitor information, or consumer protection).*
- b. A project focused on delivery of services to businesses (such as licensing, or workers compensation, or electronic payment and filing).*
- c. A project focused on services that integrate intergovernmental programs (such as self service eligibility determination, or online grants processing, or social services benefits delivery).*
- d. A project focused on delivery of services internal to state operations (such as online travel and human resources transactions, or data sharing between state agencies).*
- e. A project focused on reorganization of information on departmental web pages around major customer groups or users (e.g., public user, business user, government user) consistent with new look-and-feel standards to be adopted by the State CIO.”*

I encourage each one of you to nominate at least one project by emailing the attached completed nomination form(s) to Claudina.nevis@gov.ca.gov no later than March 31, 2006.

With your timely input I will announce more than five selected projects by the end of April, 2006. Thank you in advance for your support of the California IT program and project nominations.

Sincerely,
